FOOT BALL REFORM.

N. Y. U. Conference Decides to Reform, Not Abolish, Foot Ball.

Harvard Appoints Committee for Revision of Rules.

There were thirteen colleges and universities represented at the meeting on foot ball called by Chancellor MacCracken in New York on December 8th, and the advocates of inter-collegiate foot ball won a victory by passing by a vote of 15 to 8, an amended resolution declaring that the game should not be abolished but should be reformed.

Chancellor MacCracken, of New York University, first, introduced a motion declaring that foot ball should be abolished, but an amendment was promptly offered by Lieutenant Colonel R. L. Howze, of West Point, and was carried.

A committee composed of representatives of Columbia, West Point and New York University, was appointed to draw up a plan of reform, and later submitted three different propositions, which the conference finally merged into the following and adopted by a large majority:—

Resolved, That this conference favors the appointment of a rules committee to govern foot ball, to be appointed by these institutions annually and to be responsible to the appointing bodies.

Resolved, That an invitation be sent to the colleges and universities that are active in football to appoint annually delegates, one from each institution, who shall elect each year a committee of eleven members to formulate rules for the government of the game.

Resolved, That no one shall be eligible as a delegate to the conference who has received compensation by reason of his connection with athletics, whether as a player, coach, umpire, referee, director, committeeman, or in any other capacity, excepting a member of the faculty of a college and regularly enrolled in the catalogue.

The delegates to the conference are invited to meet in New York, December 28. It was ordered that the rules committee be requested to make such change as would lessen the danger to players and make certain the detection of foul and brutal play.

The conference also suggested that foot ball between school-boy teams should be prevented by the educational authorities owing to the immaturity of the players.

The following universities and colleges were represented: Wesleyan, Rutgers, Haverford, Swarthmore, Syracuse, Rochester, West Point, Fordham, Stevens, Columbia, Union, New York University.

The Athletic Association of Harvard graduates has appointed a committee to consider the features of the game of foot ball which are considered objectionable and to report such methods of revision of the present game as will in its opinion eliminate its unpleasant features.

The committee is composed of seven men prominent in Harvard athletics and among them are the noted foot ball players, R. D. Wrenn and W. T. Reid, Jr.

THE BANQUET.

Many Scares But No Banquet. When Will It Be?

The Sophomore Class has been very sure during the last week that the Banquet was to occur within a short time, and their positiveness has caused them to seek the company of the Freshmen several nights at rather late hours and to detain them in their company until the supposed date of the festive occasion has passed. But as yet no positive evidence has been forthcoming that there is to be any banquet at all. Defying all precedent, the Freshmen seem to have set a late date on purpose to bother their antagonists, and it even begins to look as though December might roll by without the much discussed event taking place.

Twice have the Sophomores kidnapped freshmen, and they exacted parols from others, but each time the men have been returned and the alarms been voted false.

All this has caused intense undergraduate excitement. The Seniors became so interested that they passed two sets of rules to govern the occasion. The nature of these has hardly been such as to allay the excitement.

In the meantime the entire college, even the Faculty, perhaps, wonders, "When will the banquet take place?"

SEABURY CLUB LECTURES.

To be delivered in Christ Church, Hartford, on Wednesday evenings, at 8 o'clock at the church. December 6, The Eastern Branch, The Rev. Shirley Carter Hughson, Order of the Holy Cross. December 13, The Roman Branch, The Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., Berkeley Divinity School. December 20, The Anglican Branch, The Rev. Frederick Joseph Kinsman, General Theological Seminary.

NOTES.

Last week Professor Gustavus A. Kleene attended a conference on the immigration question held in New York City. The conference was held under the auspices of the National Civic Federation. Dr. Kleene was one of the five delegates who represented the American Economic Association. The conference took place on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

A. T. McCook '02, is a senior at the Harvard Law School.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

Well Attended. Many Good Speakers.

The 19th annual convention of the Church Students' Missionary Association was held at Cambridge December 5-7, under the auspices of Harvard University and the Episcopal Theological School. About 145 delegates and visitors registered, making the largest convention in the history of the association.

The most important business before the convention was the discussion of a more effective relationship between the C. S. M. A. and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Mr. Gardiner, President of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, addressed the convention, and, though expressing his opinion that the Brotherhood must take under itself the C. S. M. A., was not prepared to suggest definite plans for such a move. The convention took no action. This question will be discussed during the coming year with the expectation of doing something definite at the next convention, which is to be held in Philadelphia.

Among the speakers and preachers at the convention were the Rev. Geo. Hodges, D. D., Dean of the Episcopal Theological School, who gave the address of welcome. Rev. S. C. Hughson, O. H. C., spoke very earnestly of two definite opportunities for home mission work, in the highlands of the Carolinas and Kentucky, and among the negroes of the South. Rev. Arthur M. Sherman, Hankow, China, spoke for missions abroad. Rev. Alexander Mann, S. T. D., of Trinity Church, Boston, spoke of the relation of the Board of Missions and the Parish, his point being that the Rector is responsible for the attitude of the people towards foreign missions. The Rt. Rev. F. S. Spaulding, D. D., Bishop of Salt Lake, under the general subject of fields and needs, made an address on "The West and Mormonism." On the relation of the Missionary problem to the Boarding School, to the College and University and to the Theological Seminary, addresses were made, respectively, by Rev. Endicott Peabody, D. D., Headmaster of Groton School, John R. Mott, General Secretary World's Student Christian Federation, and Rev. J. C. Roper, D. D., of the General Theological Seminary; Rev. H. St. G. Tucker, President of St. Paul's College, Tokyo, spoke on "Japan and Its Future."

The convention closed with a mass meeting in Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall. John R. Mott spoke in a very inspiring manner of the possibilities of students in their ability and opportunity, in the present generation, to evangelize the world. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd, D. D., General Secretary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, spoke on the end of Missions, "The World for God." H. G. Barbour, '06, D. E. Lauder-burn, '06, and H. Huet, '06 attended as delegates from Trinity. Five Berkeley men also Trinity men, were in attendance. They were Henderson '02, Thomas '03, Roberts '05, Harriman '05 and Bulkley '05.

FIRST GERMAN.

Successful Affair Held on Friday Night.

The Trinity College German Club held its first german of the season last Friday night in Alumni Hall. On account of the Freshman-Junior Banquet scare the attendance was slightly smaller than usual. The first half was an informal dance and the second a regular cotillion led by President F. C. Hinkel with Miss Alice Frisbie. The music was furnished by Scott Snow.

Those dancing were: H. Burgwin, '06 with Miss Hayes, H. G. Barbour, '06 with Miss Clark, F. C. Hinkel, '06 with Miss Frisbie, C. V. Ferguson, '07 with Miss Van Zile, C. L. Trumbull, '08 with Miss Hatch, P. M. Butterworth, '08 with Miss Butler, W. J. Hamersley, '09 with Miss Flagg, E. K. Roberts, '09 with Miss Welch, H. Hinkel, '09 with Miss Wander, L. G. Carpenter, '09 with Miss Toy.

The patronesses were Mrs. F. W. Davis and Mrs. Cranston Brenton.

BASKET BALL.

The basket ball team goes to Williamstown, Wednesday, to play Williams. The probable lineup will be as follows: Forwards, Powell and Donnelly; center, Landefeld; guards, Marlor and Pond. The next game will be at home, Saturday night, when the team will play against the Amherst "Aggies."

The Freshmen play Choate School of Wallingford in the gym. on Saturday night. Since the class as a whole has given absolutely no support to the Freshman team, the efforts of the players have not been as successful as they should have been. Every Freshman who had ever played basket ball or thinks that he could should come out and help the team along.

ATHLETIC ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Advisory Committee of the Athletic Association in the Treasurer's office at 4:45 to-day. Among others the subjects to be considered at the meeting are: The consolidation of basket ball, the ratification of the recent elections of manager and assistant manager of the foot ball team, captain of the football team and assistant manager of the track team, and a review of the finances.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

Lectures on Current Topics.

To the Editor Trinity Tripod:—

Dear Sir: Last year there was instituted, during the second term, a series of lectures, given every two weeks, in connection with the course in History I. These lectures were given by Mr. Burpee, a most excellent lecturer and one in sympathy with the point of view of college men, and who has been for some years and now is on the staff of the Hartford Courant. Their object seems to have been to help the men who attended them in keeping up-to-date in the general views of the world. There are many events that appear in large headlines in one edition of a paper and are thereafter lost sight of. Mr. Burpee followed these up and told us the conclusions. The lectures were most popular, as the members present attest, and were of value both in teaching a man how to read a newspaper, and also in giving digests of the important events in the world of activities. I know how much they helped everyone in understanding the progress of the war in the Far East and in comprehending the unseen forces behind this war.

Can this course not be made a regular institution? It was of undoubted value and interest and I know of many undergraduates who would like to see it continued. If last year was merely an experiment, it was certainly a successful experiment and one well worthy of repetition.

Thanking you for your attention,

Very truly yours,

ALSHO NIU.

The Song Book.

To the Editor of The Tripod:—A recent communication to the Tripod in regard to a college song book seems to me to be most opportune. I believe the time has come to take some definite action in this matter. If all the college songs and all poems which have to do with college life should be collected from previous editions of the "Ivy" and from back numbers of the "Tablet" we would have a very large number of literary contributions from which to choose for a college song book. Some of the class songs also might be considered. At present, with the exception of "Neath the Elms," none of the songs regularly sung by the undergraduates are distinctively Trinity Songs. This ought not to be, for the singing of college songs at college gatherings is a great incentive to college spirit.

A committee might be appointed from the undergraduates and another from the Alumni to take this matter in charge.

These committees could work together in deciding which songs should be included in the book. So let us resurrect the songs of the past and let us have a song book which will be a source of pride to all who have the interests of Trinity at heart.

ALUMNUS, 1901.

1906 IVY.

To the alumni: The 1906 Ivy is a book of 300 pages, neatly bound, very fully illustrated,—all in all, one of the best of the long list of good annuals that the classes of Trinity have published. A large number of books were ordered published this year in order to keep the price of the annual at the low price of one dollar, in spite of the fact that the book is published at a greater expense. In order to meet the expenses for publishing this annual the total number of books must be sold. A number of books are still on hand. Send one dollar to the Business Manager, 1906 Ivy, and the book will be sent, express charge C. O. D.

PROF. PERKINS LECTURES IN BOSTON.

Professor Perkins lectured in Boston on Saturday to the Eastern Association of Physics teachers. He was invited to lecture as a result of his recent article in the "Scientific American" upon the "Teaching of Physics in our Secondary Schools." His address in Boston was on this subject.

Professor F. Zschokke of the University of Basel has reviewed for the Zoologisches Zentralblatt (Oct. 31, 1905), the article by Professor Edwards upon the Floating Laboratory or Marine Biology of Trinity College published last June in the journal "Science."

WANTED: Material for the 1907 IVY. Every man in college should hand in some work for this book. "Come early and avoid the rush."

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
